Total Revocations - Parole Types 2019

- Mandatory Parole: 73.6%
- Discretionary Parole: 23.8%
- Mandatory Re-Parole: 1.8%
- Discretionary Re-Parole: 0.6%
- Administrative Parole: 0.2%
Total Revocations by Location 2019

- Anchorage Probation: 401
- Bethel Probation: 23
- Dillingham Probation: 0
- Fairbanks Probation: 72
- Juneau Probation: 44
- Kenai Probation: 12
- Ketchikan Probation: 10
- Kodiak Probation: 6
- Kotzebue Probation: 1
- Nome Probation: 17
- Palmer Probation: 54
- Sitka Probation: 1
- Utqiagvik (Barrow) Prob: 9
- Interstate Compact Office: 1
- Anchorage EM: 0
Primary offense is defined as the crime for which they were convicted of. In the case of multiple crimes the primary is the most serious.
Substance abuse including drugs/alcohol use was the condition violated the most.
Technical violations are violations of conditions of parole that do not involve committing new criminal offenses. Examples include failing to report for office visits, not participating in treatment, testing positive for drugs or alcohol, etc.