HILAND MOUNTAIN INMATES COTRIBUTE $5,000 TO SALVATION ARMY 'ADOPT-A-FAMILY' PROGRAM

EAGLE RIVER – Inmates at Hiland Mountain Correctional Center have contributed $5,000 in toys, gift cards, school supplies and household items to three anonymous families participating in the Salvation Army's annual 'Adopt A Family' Christmas program.

Items were purchased at local retailers and will be taken to the Salvation Army on December 19, said Superintendent Dean Marshall.

The three families include 10 children, age 1-18.
