

The Alaska Department of Corrections' 287(g) Program, in conjunction with U.S. Immigration and Custom Enforcement, will conduct its 2024 Steering Committee meeting January 24, 2024.

The 287(g) Program allows state and local law enforcement to partner with ICE to receive delegated authority for warrant service officers within their jurisdictions.

This virtual meeting will begin at 10 a.m. and is open to the public. Those who wish to attend should contact Deportation Officer Bradley Hayes.

Please include your email address and questions for the steering committee.
