Minors and their custodial parent/ legal guardian must be on a prisoner's approved visiting list before being allowed to visit. Minors shall be accompanied by their custodial parent, legal guardian or, other approved adult of the minor's immediate family. Birth certificate and, if needed, proof of legal guardianship for each minor will be required at each visit. Notarized statements of approval from the custodial parent(s) for another adult to bring the child will not be accepted. If the parent name has changed since the birth certificate was issued a marriage certificate or legal name change will need to be provided as well. A picture ID will also be required for youth over 16 years of age. If these rules are not followed the minor will not be allowed to visit at GCCC.

On a minor's 18th birthday, they will automatically be removed from an inmate's visiting list without prior notice. The visitor will need to submit a GCCC Adult Visitor Application to visit an offender at GCCC. Visitors may not bring this form to visiting and visit the same day. Visitor applications must be mailed or emailed to be processed. By signing below, you acknowledge that you read, understand, and agree to follow the Rules of Visiting for Goose Creek Correctional Center as stated on our website under Visiting, and have sought clarification for rules which you did not understand. Prisoners will notify visitors when they have been approved.

As custodial parent/legal guardian I give my consent for the above minor children to visit, _____, a prisoner at Goose Creek Correctional Center. I acknowledge that the minor(s) listed above are not the victim(s) of the offender, nor are they immediately related to any victim(s) of the offender (i.e. brother, sister, step-brother, step-sister, half brother, half sister.) I recognize that if I fail to supervise and provide appropriate control of my children during a visit, the visit may be terminated and could result in the temporary or permanent loss of visiting privileges.
